CONDITIONS OF SALE

- I. The highest bidder to be the buyer. If any dispute arise the Auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to settle it; and to put any disputed lot up again.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s. ; above five pounds 2s. 6d. ; and so on in proportion.
- III. All lots are sold subject to the right of the seller or his agent to bid, or else to impose a reserve.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and, if required, to pay down 10s. in the pound in part payment of the purchase-money, in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale; in default of which Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser. If at the expiration of one week after the conclusion of the sale, the books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expenses, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. Messrs. SOTHEY & Co. will have the option of re-selling the lots uncleared, either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- VI. All the books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but if, upon collating, any should prove defective, the purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are received back within Fourteen Days after the conclusion of the sale, when the purchase-money will be returned.
- VII. The sale of any book or books is not to be set aside on account of any worm-holes, stained, or short leaves of text or plates, want of list of plates or blank leaves, or on account of the publication of any subsequent volume, supplement, appendix, or plates. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No Imperfect Book will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

Messrs. SOTHEY & Co are prepared to advise intending purchasers, as far as possible, and will execute bids on their behalf, free of charge. Lots will be procured as cheaply as is permitted by other bids or reserves, if any.

(Table, etc.), top corner margins defective at beginning affecting foliation in a few cases, margins of hHh 3 and 4 and top of Vii defective affecting a few letters of text, Ee 4 split, a few headlines touched, Coverdale's name at end of Epistle defaced in old ink, 18th cent. blue morocco gilt (12 $\frac{1}{8}$ in. by 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) folio. [Southwark, James Nicholson, 1537]*
-  THE FIRST FOLIO BIBLE PRINTED IN ENGLAND. It is not certain whether this or the quarto edition of the same year is the first Bible printed on English ground, but as certain improvements were introduced into the quarto, the balance of probability is in favour of the Folio. Apart from the defects mentioned, a sound and clean copy of a very rare and important book.

- 641 PLAUTUS. COMÆDIÆ XX, contemporary calf, worn folio. Paris, R. Stephanus, 1530
-  At the top of the title page is the autograph inscription "Sum Nicolai Vdalli 1536." Udall is well-known as the author of Ralph Roister Doister, the first English comedy. He was Headmaster of Eton from 1532 to 1541 and the book gains in interest from the fact that he is known to have organised performances of Plautus and Terence by the scholars.
- Other signatures on the title page are those of Matheus Buste and Sir Francis Nethersole, Fellow and Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge, and later a distinguished diplomatist. There is a smudge of old ink partly obscuring Udall's signature ; old MS. notes and a few wormholes in text.
